Peacefully ♩ = 69

The first system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is the treble clef, containing the melody with a slur over the first five measures. The middle staff is the right-hand piano part, starting with a 'Sw.' (Swell) marking and a dynamic of p. The bottom staff is the left-hand piano part, featuring a simple harmonic accompaniment with a few ledger lines below the staff.

The second system continues the musical notation with three staves. The treble clef staff has a slur over the first five measures. The right-hand piano part continues with chords and moving lines. The left-hand piano part continues with a steady harmonic accompaniment.

The third system continues the musical notation with three staves. The treble clef staff has a slur over the first five measures. The right-hand piano part continues with chords and moving lines. The left-hand piano part continues with a steady harmonic accompaniment. The word 'holding back' is written above the final measure of the treble staff.

The fourth system continues the musical notation with three staves. The treble clef staff has a slur over the first five measures. The right-hand piano part continues with chords and moving lines. The left-hand piano part continues with a steady harmonic accompaniment. The word 'a tempo' is written above the first measure of the right-hand piano part, and 'Sw.' is written above the final measure of the treble staff.
